A Then I go to bed at eleven o'clock.

B My family sits down and we eat together and talk about our day. Then I clean the kitchen and wash the dishes. My children do their homework and I help them.

C Then I go home and cook dinner. I prepare vegetables and meat and cook on the stove.

D When I wake up at seven o'clock, I make breakfast. I cook eggs and bread and drink tea. Then I take my children to school at eight o'clock.

E My job is to help customers find what they want. I stand at the counter and sell things. Sometimes I use the till – I count the money and give change. My boss is very nice. Sometimes I have a break and drink coffee and eat a sandwich.

F In the afternoon I finish at five o'clock. I pick up my children from their after-school club.

G Then I go to work. I work in a shop from nine to five.

H Sometimes I read a story before they go to bed.
