E3 Reading and Writing – Camping Advice Email – Answers (teacher)

Teacher copy. Do not hand out.

1. Any three: where to go / the camping rules (where you can camp); what to take (equipment); the weather (cold nights).

2. No. Her children are young, so the place must not be too far from home – about two hours by car.

3. Using their kitchen table for eating on the trip.

4. Any six: should, must, could, can't, can, might (e.g. Should we camp…, We must choose…, I could book…, we can't camp everywhere, we can use…, he might be joking).

Task 2 – model reply (one example)

Hi Sarah,

Thanks for your email. I think you should camp near London, because the children are young and it is a shorter journey. You could try a campsite in Essex or Kent. You must book a campsite with toilets and showers – you can't camp anywhere you like in England. You should take a tent, sleeping bags and a torch. You don't need to buy an expensive stove; a small gas stove is fine. Your husband might be joking about the table, but a folding table could be useful! You should go in July or August, because the nights are warmer. You must bring warm clothes, because it can still be cold at night.

Best wishes,
Mike
