Section A – True or False

Read each email. Then tick True or False for each sentence.

Text 1 – Celina to Teresa

Hi Teresa, I hope you're doing well. I'm writing to ask if you'd like to come to a picnic on Saturday. The picnic will be in the park next to my house, but we can meet at Dalston Market first. I will bring some food and cakes. What food will you bring? Or drinks? See you on Saturday. Love from Celina

Text 2 – Leyla to Selin

Hello Selin, How are you? Would you like to come to a picnic with me and my friends this Sunday? The picnic will be at Rosemary Gardens, near my house. I will make some food and salad. If you come, please bring some vegetables and drinks. See you soon, Leyla

Text 3 – Rupa to Mita

Dear Mita, I want to have a picnic with you. I am so happy and excited about it. I suggest we meet at Canary Wharf. It's a very beautiful place, with a big river and beautiful buildings. Please bring some dry food like bread, sweets or biscuits, and some water and drinks. I will also bring some dry food, so don't worry. We'll go by bus – it's not too far. See you soon, Rupa

Text 4 – Aylin to Dilan

Hello Dilan! How are you? Next week we're going to have a picnic in Hackney Downs Park. Would you like to come? If you come, can you bring some food and snacks? Everyone brings food from home. I'm going to bring Turkish coffee. We're going to play some games and have a barbecue. Can you make a cake for the picnic too, please? I know you make cakes for your kids, so it's easy for you! See you at the picnic! Aylin

Statement	True	False
1. Celina has already decided where they will meet before the picnic.
2. Celina already knows what food Teresa is bringing.
3. Leyla doesn't want Selin to bring anything.
4. Leyla will make the salad herself.
5. Rupa thinks the meeting place is attractive.
6. Rupa is worried they won't have enough food.
7. At Aylin's picnic, everyone will bring food from home.
8. Aylin wants Dilan to make a cake because Dilan has more free time.
